

HEIRESS WANDERER, DAUGHTER OF CANDY KING, WEDS DESPITE PAPA

Mrs. Walter L. Clements, Candy King's Heiress.

Los Angeles, Cal., Feb. 23.—Miss Dixie Nunnally, 19-year-old heiress of San Francisco, Los Angeles, Louisville and Atlanta, was married recently to Walter L. Clements, a 20-year-old lad of this city.

The romance started in San Francisco six months ago. Mrs. Clements is the daughter of a millionaire candy manufacturer with a chain of stores through the South.

Miss Nunnally came into prominence about a year ago when she left home to wander about the country alone, despite the threats of her father, who cut down her allowance, only to be forced to relent when the girl succeeded in drawing upon an estate of her own.

In telling of her career, Mrs. Clements said:

"I had no home, so I just traveled. My mother died when I was very young and my father married a second time. I tried to make a living painting, but I couldn't. Then I married. And now, for the first time in
